

LANDSCAPE FUTURES

UNISCAPE CONFERENCE 2017

PROGRAMME

MONDAY, 19TH OF JUNE

08:30 - 10:00 Registration and coffee

10:00 - 10:20 Welcome

10:20 - 11:20 Keynote:

Lone Søderkvist Kristensen and Jørgen Primdahl, University of Copenhagen: Rural landscape futures – collaborating on planning solutions and governance

11:30 - 12:25 Parallel session 1

Theme 1	Theme 2	Theme 3	Theme 4	Theme 5
Margarita Vološina: Landscape Quality Objectives for Riga: Towards Planning Methodology via Subsidiarity Principles	Mariana Machado: Vegetation Series As A Reference Frame In Landscape Development And Conservation	Axel Timpe: Productive parks – an emerging landscape of co-production	Andrew McClelland: The historic, cross-border, urban landscape of Derry~Londonderry: exploring digital participatory mapping in heritage inventorying processes on the island of Ireland
Galia Hanoch-Roe: The Role of an NGO in Sustainable and Inclusive Landscape Design and Preservation	Anđela Ristić: Biomimicry in urban landscape design: growing from species to ecosystem	Marie Markman: Urban nature and conducting research outside an institution	Riccardo Giacomelli: Bivouac Vigolana, a landscape evolution democratic experience

12:30 - 13:30 Lunch

13:30 - 15:30 Parallel session 2

Theme 1	Theme 2	Theme 3	Theme 4	Theme 5
Claudia Cassatella: Does landscape planning exist? An Italian perspective	Natalie Gulsrud: Innovative urban forestry governance in Melbourne: positioning “green place-making” as a Nature-Based Solution	Gini Lee: Water Lore: developing a practice-based lexicon for wise water use in a drying world	Martina Ramella Gal: “(land)Escape the disabilities- A landscape for everyone”, a project of inclusiveness in the UNESCO Landscape of Langhe-Roero and Monferrato
Fulvio Adobati and Margherita Cisani: Governing a brand-territory: the Regional Territorial Plan of the Franciacorta area	Jiang Liu: Effects of landscape on soundscape experience in city parks: a case study in Xiamen, China	Thomas Juel Clemmensen: Sous les pavés: La plage! In search of geologic resonance in landscape architecture	Ally Lu: Collective memory and historic landscape conservation – A Case study of the Confucius Temple Scenic Area in Nanjing, China	Jane Morse: A New Approach to Teaching Right Plant, Right Place
Selena Bagnara Milan: The Practice of Landscape Stewardship in Italy through the Principle of Subsidiarity: Preserved or Revised?	Corinne Vitale and Francesco Domenico Moccia: From risk to urban public space quality. A research over resilience and urban regeneration in the Sarno river basin.	Peter Hemmersam: Disturbed ground and landscape change in the Arctic	Ragnhild Skogheim: Visioning the future of historic landscapes, the case Austrått in Norway	Diana Pungar: Landscape education in Estonian environmental governance
Anse Kinnaer and Aukje de Haan: Heritage Master Plan: a new participative vision-instrument for heritage and landscape in Flanders	Cristina García Fontán: The power of the water	Anđela Ristic: Landscapes behind natural disasters: potential for resilient future	Tao Luo: Assessing Local Residents’ Potential of Participation in Small Town Development: A Survey in Wuyi Mountain Region, China	Elisa Palazzo: Design as an ecological experiment: the Urban Ecosystem-design Lab, University of Adelaide, South Australia
Mauro Volpiano: The future of historic landscape in the context of a WHL UNESCO Site: knowledge approaches for the managing of the Royal Residences of Savoy in Piedmont.		Elzelina Van Melle: The contribution of visual esthetics in the development of sustainable treescapes

LANDSCAPE FUTURES

UNISCAPE CONFERENCE 2017

PROGRAMME

MONDAY, 19TH OF JUNE - CONTINUED

15:30 - 16:00 Coffee

16:00 - 18:00 Parallel session 3

Theme 1	Theme 2	Theme 3	Theme 4	Theme 5
Carolina Giaimo: A multilevel governance for Green infrastructures design: the innovation of urban and landscape planning starting from EU project Life SAM4CP framework	Min Xu and Tao Luo: The role of photo color schemes in landscape preference tests	Bas Pedroli: Which vision of future landscape in Europe is preferable?	Stjepko Golubić: Segregation in designed landscape – history and future
Claudia Fongar: Urban green space management – Users demands and governance approaches in Norway	Theo Van der Sluis: The impact of European landscape transitions on the provision of landscape services	Roberta Pistoni: Role and practice of landscape architects engaged in the sustainable energy transition: New empirical findings from France and the Netherlands	Javier Moreno Ortiz: Building future landscapes through the visions of the environment
Jørgen Primdahl: Balancing Regional Concerns and Local interests in Nature Park Planning – Two Danish Cases	Nora Fagerholm: European cross-site comparison of place-based ecosystem services in multifunctional rural landscapes	Tomaz Pipan: Politics of landscapes: production, utilization and meaning	Bettina Walther: Driving democratic appropriation of urban landscapes in disadvantaged neighborhoods: Case studies from Berlin
		John O'Callaghan: Rewilding a West of Ireland landscape – an interim report on rewilding the Nephinbeg wilderness area for future generations

18:30 - 21:00 Book Launch and Reception

TUESDAY, 20TH OF JUNE

08:30 - 09:30 Parallel session 4

Theme 1	Theme 2	Theme 3	Theme 4	Theme 5
		Marija Milinkovic and Dragana Corovic: Belgrade Riverscape revisions and lost perspectives of modernization		Diedrich Bruns: Landscape Education and Democracy (LED), an ERASMUS+ Project
		Jacques Abelman: Speaking truth to power: Landscape narratives of resistance and change		Annelies Van Caenegem: "Scaping the Future": How to connect the youth to sustainable landscape development

09:30 - 09:45 Coffee

09:45 - 10:45 Keynote:

Rikke Lequick Larsen, City of Copenhagen: Urban nature in Seattle and Copenhagen – reality or fantasy?

11:00 - 18:00 Excursions

18:30 - 21:30 Conference dinner at Dragsholm Castle

21:45 - 23:00 Return to Copenhagen

LANDSCAPE FUTURES

UNISCAPE CONFERENCE 2017

PROGRAMME

WEDNESDAY, 21ST OF JUNE

09:00 - 10:30

Parallel session 5

Theme 1	Theme 2	Theme 3	Theme 4	Theme 5
Zdenek Ent: Bottom-up Approach in Landscape Stewardship: Peri-urban Park in Prague (CZ)	Elisa Baldin: Bioremediation techniques: from environmental regeneration to cultural reappropriation in post industrial landscape	Anne Tietjen: Future welfare landscapes	Salla Eilola: Opportunities and limitations of spatially sensitive participatory planning practices in achieving inclusive and healthy landscapes in Tanzania
Teresa Pinto-Correira: Creating proximity – a dialogue process named Tertúlias do Montado	Stepan Spoula: Landscape Planning in Prague: The Current Practice	Asbjørn Jessen: A typo-morphological approach to transforming Danish post-war welfare landscapes	Torsten Lipp: Garden City Drewitz goes Kikwajuni Zanzibar: transferring participative approaches in urban development planning
Kalev Sepp: Innovative approaches for forest stewardship at landscape scale		Lærke Sophie Keil: Between home and common. Exploring the past, present and future of a Danish post-war social housing estate	Sophie Jerram: When artists access streets of commerce

10:30 - 11:00

Coffee

11:00 - 12:00

Keynote:

Christian Albert, Leibniz University of Hanover: Nature-based Solutions in River Landscapes: What roles for Landscape Planning and Governance?

12:10 - 13:10

Lunch

13:10 - 15:00

Parallel session 6

Theme 1	Theme 2	Theme 3	Theme 4	Theme 5
Andrew Butler & Sylvia Dowlén: How can landmarks act as a means for justifying emotional values in planning and decision-making?	Christine Fuhrmann: Design with nature: a landscape approach for the future of small rural towns	Sara Favargiotti: Resilient landscape reserves – The transformation of obsolete airfields as new productive landscapes	Alessia De Nardi: Landscape and sense of belonging to place in the experience of migrants: explorations in Veneto region, Italy
Alessandro Paletto: Visitors' preferences for urban forest landscapes: the case study of Monte Morello forest in Italy	Martin Posolda: Evidence of old and regional varieties of apple and pear trees in selected municipalities in the southwest of Kromeriz region, Czech republic.	Oliver Laas: Ecopoietic responsibilities for future informational landscapes	Burcu Yigit Turan: Decolonizing Landscape Architecture at 'the Century of the Migrant'
Carla Gonçalves: Coastal landscape evolution as a basis for adaptive management	Marek Kundrata and Stepan Spoula: Revitalization of unique riverine landscape of Troja basin in Prague	Johanne Heesche: Site features of suburban industrial areas in the Loop City and their potentials in a landscape-based transformation strategy	Therese Andersson: Landscape architecture as a social service – the beliefs and experiences of landscape architects and municipal project managers in Groruddalssatsningen, Norway
		Nayla Al-Akl: The potential of urban cemeteries in sustainable landscape and urban planning: The case of Beirut

15:00 - 16:15

Coffee and Closing of the conference